

BRAIN CANCER REHABILITATION, ASSESSMENT, INTERVENTIONS FOR SURVIVORSHIP NEEDS (The BRAINS program)

11:30 – 1:30 (AEDT)
Friday 3 December

REGISTER HERE

11:30am –11:40 Introduction and acknowledgement of country
A/Professor Haryana Dhillon

INVITED SPEAKERS

11:40 –11:45 Distress and unmet needs screening – adapting the ADAPT portal
A/Professor Joanne Shaw

11:45 - 12:00 Initial results of the Care-IS Trial: a randomised controlled trial of a supportive educational intervention for carers of patients with high-grade glioma (HGG)
A/Professor Georgia Halkett

12:00 - 12:10 Personality changes in people with brain cancer – what help do they get?
Emma McDougall

12:10 - 12:25 Optimising information resources for brain cancer caregivers
Dr Helen Haydon

12:25 - 12:35 What psychosocial support services are available to Australians with brain cancer?
Dr Katarzyna Lion

12:35 - 12:45 Tele-MAST – an intervention to reduce psychological distress in people with brain cancer
Professor Tamara Ownsworth

12:45-1:00 LaTCH – developing a memory training program for brain cancer survivors
Dr Kerry Pike and Sian Virtue-Griffiths

1:00-1:10 Re-Claim life – adapting group support program for people under 40 years living with brain cancers
A/Professor Haryana Dhillon on behalf of Dr Ursula Sansom-Daly

1:10 -1:20 Can an online intervention to increase self-efficacy to self-manage fatigue help people with brain cancer?

Dr Rachel Campbell

1:20 - 1:30 Wrap up and close

REGISTER HERE

Please note the ZOOM webinar link for this event will be sent out closer to the time and can be used to access all events in the series.